More Activities

Create Your Own Wine

A team building exercise designed to accent the creative side of corporate staff by matching groups against one another to create a unique wine and a label to market it. The exercise provides the teams background on how quality wines are created and advertising strategies achieved through creative label design. In a fun-filled two hour session, corporate staff blend three different wines into a premier cuvee and produce a bottle label to take their "product" to market. Participants start the exercise by tasting professionally blended wines and receive a souvenir wine glass as part of their experience as "winemaker for a day."
$50.00pp

Casino Games

Learn how to play the popular casino games at your own private event with professional dealers who will teach you all the "ins & outs" to the game. Texas Hold Em, Craps and Blackjack available.

Signature Teambuilding Programs

We'll call it a day of fusion. They'll call it a day of fun. (We'll both be right.) What brings people together? Time spent laughing, playing, solving problems, plotting strategies, making mistakes and trying again. Signature Teambuilding uses all of those things to build stronger teams and better relationships. So come to us when you need to create a little chemistry on your team, or instant rapport between people meeting for the very first time. Visit www.signatureteambuilding.com for additional information.
Programs range from $40.00 - $95.00pp
